General Data Protection Regulation - Consent Form for Membership Applications

With the implementation of The General Data Protection Regulation in May 2018, changes have occurred in how companies record, store and use individuals' personal data. As a result, at Ribble Steam Railway Ltd we have reviewed and amended some of our working practices.

As a company we need to collect and hold data about you to enable us to process your membership application. The GDPR law places a further (and new) obligation for us as an organisation to tell our members in more detail why we collect your data, what we do with it, and how long we expect to retain it.

We wish to obtain your informed consent about the data that we may hold about you as it provides you with a better understanding of how we will use your data.

We are not planning to transfer your data outside the EEA.

Your consent is requested

We would like your consent so RSR Ltd / RR Ltd can communicate with you via email, telephone and post.* By agreeing to this, we will hold personal and special data about you as part of the membership application process.

*This data will not be shared externally.

Agreement to use my data

I hereby freely give Ribble Steam Railway Ltd consent to use and process my personal data relating to my membership application.

In giving my consent:

I understand that I can ask to see this data to check its accuracy at any time via a subject access request (SAR).

I understand that I can ask for a copy of my personal data held about me at any time, and this request is free of charge.

I understand that I can request that data that is no longer required to be held, can be removed from my file and destroyed.

I understand that if I am dissatisfied with how the company uses my data I can make a complaint to the government body in charge (Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or at www ICO.org.uk
